

I am writing in regard to my opposition about the efforts of the CBA trying to override my rights to privacy. I am opposed to all tele-marketing calls and greatly appreciate the efforts of the legislature in Indiana, as well as the Attorney General, in protecting my rights to not being annoyed by unwanted telephone calls.